The Legal Document Assistant has informed me that she is not an attorney and she cannot give me legal advice. Legal advice is explaining to you your rights, duties, and responsibilities. If a hearing is required, it is my intention to represent myself in court. I was also informed that it is up to me to inform myself as to the laws and procedures which affect my situation and to make my own legal decisions. I will select my own forms. No one at Judicial Self-Help Center has represented herself to be a lawyer. I have neither sought nor received any legal advice.
